“ My heart goes out to the family and friends of James William Clark. I've been there. I lost a baby and a brother. Prayer and Time was what helped me through it. Jesus Christ promise: "juat as the Father raises up the dea and make them live again, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this the hour is coming in which all those in the memeorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Yes, Jesus promised that millions now dead will live again and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful paradasaic conditions. (John 5:21,28,29. and Psalms 37:10,11,29 and Matthew 5:5, Psalms 37:10,11, and 29) What a wonderful hope.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to hear about James passing. Losing a child is a difficult thing to go threw. I remember that James was a tall good looking teenager with a sweet smile and a sweet gentle disposition. He was Brittany's man and she loved him dearly. Now they are together in heaven and that gives me some peace.
Sincerely,
