“ Jane... what a hoot. My first plane ride was to fly to North Carolina to accompany Jane driving back to Wisconsin so she wouldn't have to drive alone. I don't know how I got so lucky to get that gig (probably my brilliant persuasiveness acquired at an early age) but it was awesome. I was 15 and I still remember the new blue and white striped suit I got to buy for the plane ride... that's when people dressed to fly. What a thrill flying and then riding with Jane all the way home... "Jane, it says to stay off the median" ... "No, Honey, that's only if you don't need to make a U-turn" Hehehe weeeeeee and off we went. What fun! I blame all of my driving skills on that woman.

I am so thankful she was an honorable wife to my brother and always kept an open heart and arms to our family. I will miss her southern drawl when she would call me by mistake or looking for someone else's number... do I look like an operator? LOL; no, that would be Jane. When SNL came up with the one ringy dingy persona - every time I enjoyed one, I would think of our Jane.

So many memories... a warm sunny hug from Arizona to all of my Georgia kin. She is dancing in Heaven with so many of our family that have gone before her.

“ I would like to express my sincerest condolences for Mrs. Genskes family. I graduated high school with Matt and although I never met Mrs. Genske, I know she was a wonderful woman because she raised a great son.
