I can only imagine how difficult it is for you Laura. I am truly sorry. I miss her so much too. It's still hard for me to believe she is not here. It is so upsetting. I tell her I miss her all the time...

“ I am so blessed to have had Janie as my friend. She was such a bright light in my life. She shared her heart and soul with everyone she came in contact with. Her beauty, smile, and aura surrounded you every moment. She was intelligent, creative, witty, charming, and a friend to all that knew her. Her smile and laughter were contagious to endless extents. Janie was such a giving person she helped all in need, whether they needed a lending ear, positive affirmations, or just the presense of a true friend, she was at the offering. The endellable print on our hearts will remain as well as flourishing in the lives of her children. We will be ever thankful to God for her presense, to cherish the happy times, reflecting often in her memory. Heaven has been celebrating their newest angel as we should all be so selfless to share. We will get through this together with God's grace until we will once again be united with our precious Janie. God is granting us the strength and soon peace in knowing Janie's light will never dim. It has only just recently begun to shine across the heavens allowing droplets to fall to earth sharing the newfound joy for all of us to celebrate as she embarks on the newest journey of her life. She has infinite joy, laughter, peace, and says, "Don't worry we will catch up on things when you get here." "No rush." "Love and peace to all of you!"
P.S. I'm now fluent in French! I also get front row seats to Chris Cornell and The Beatles whenever I want! ;)

Benny and Jane, I am so sorry for your loss. It is never easy to lose a loved one. I can only say that she is at peace and in the arms of Jesus. Life is a battle and she lost her battle. May you both find some peace going forward and if I can do anything for you I am here. Carol Ann (Olivera) Van Hoewyk.
