“ I am so sorry for your loss. The loss of a loved one is so heartbreaking. I can tell by all of the entries that she is loved by many. Just think if it wasn't for Adam and Eve we would not be suffering death. This is the result of their disobedience. Gods word the Bible does give us hope. Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8, tell us that the God of Love will soon bring an end to sickness and death. Jesus Christ while here on earth spoke about the resurrection hope in John 5:28,29. That means that we can have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. I truly look forward to that time. What will conditions be like when the above scriptural blessings are fulfilled? Please read Psalms 37:10,11,29,and 72:7,8, there you will receive the answer. I truly hope that this entry will give you and your loved ones some comfort and assured hope. For further comfort please contact the local Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ I can't believe janis is gone, just like everyone else. She was my rock of sanity in my years at Akins. She taught me "anytime" was a good time to pray and prayed with me even when i just knew God couldn't be listening to little ole me or how there was bigger problems in the world other than mine. Janis I love you dearly and hope to see up yonder someday. Yes i'm still praying....lol To whomever in Janis' family that might be reading this I know there is nothing anyone can say to make it all better, short of bringing her back but not only was she my rock, she was the sparkling light at the end of the tunnel for me Sorry I couldn't make it to the services i didn't get the information until today. “ I am so sorry to hear about Janis' passing. She was my best friend in school. We were like two peas in a pod. I moved away and we lost contact. I learned about her passing through a friend on Facebook. Wish I had known earlier so I could have attended her going home service. She was such a sweet person. She rejoices in heaven now. My prayers will be with her family. I know she will be missed very much.##imported-begin##Lucy (Lynch) Smith##imported-end##

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Janis but I felt as though we had known each other for years. We spoke often because of our business connections with Akins Ford. She was probably one of the sweetest and kindest people I have ever spoken with. We had not spoken for about 2 months but we talked on Friday afternoon now I know that phone call from her was for a reason. She knew my dad was in the nursing home and every time before we hung up she always asked how he was doing she never forgot about him, that meant so much to me that she always remembered him. She will be greatly missed and I know one day I will get to meet her face to face. To Janis's family, friends and co-workers our love, thoughts and prayers go out to each of you.###imported-begin##Larry & BJ Ganas###imported-end##

“ Dear David and Family:

I am so saddened to hear about Janis' homegoing. All of our family have felt so close to you and Janis and appreciate all our recent contacts with both of you. I know that the Lord is taking care of her, but I know also that your hearts are breaking at this unexpected tragedy. I am praying for you. Because of my Sunday choir directing responsibilities, I cannot come for the funeral, and I feel very badly about that. I don't travel anymore in unfamiliar territory unless someone in the family can go with me. Blake is the nearest to me, but he is preaching Sunday. We will talk to you as soon as possible.

Much love,
