“ I told my dad, "Mother knows you are coming home and she's waiting for you." He went home several hours after that, in the early morning hours. Now they are together again and in the continued presence of God. We are truly blessed to have been given the parents and family we have. We appreciate all the love and support from family and friends that loved them both. --- Caren Cornell

“ I remember Mrs. Carolyn from back when I was 13 years old learning how to lean on Jesus for everything. She was one of the ones who taught me how to dance in every sense of the word, and even though I never told her, part of my strength to keep dancing in the midst of any circumstance here on the mission field comes from her example. You will always be a blessing!##imported-begin##Christy Scott##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss. Carolyn is such a vital part of all of our lives and her physical presence will be missed greatly. My 2-Momma was the best one I could have had if I couldn't have my own mother with me anymore. I know that she is rejoicing in heaven. My thoughts and my prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Beth Davis##imported-end##

“ A true woman of God...Every time you ask Ms. Carolyn how she was; you'd get this same response EVERY TIME "I'm blessed". And she was. And she has blessed so many and will continue to bless many as her family and friends continue to share her love, her memories, her teachings. I love you, Ms. Carolyn. I'll never forget that Sunday afternoon class when you helped guide me as I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. So many wonderful memories of classes, women's retreats, and fellowship at church. I will miss you so very much but I know you are home now and happier than you've ever been. Love you Ms. Carolyn! Thank you for sharing you with us/me.##imported-begin##Hope##imported-end##

“ Dear Carolyn, I already miss you..I have so many sweet memories of you.. We were friends for 56 years and even though I've moved around to different states over the years, we always kept in touch. I will miss our long phone conversations, each time we seemed to pick up where we left off even during extended periods when we didn't talk! You were always in my heart and will remain until I see you again in heaven.. Family, my love and prayers are with all of you. It is never easy giving up our precious loved ones. Carolyn was such a blessing to many lives and she fought a good fight of faith. If we could see her now, she is well and happy with Jesus!##imported-begin##Dianne Cantrell Richardson##imported-end##

“ What a legacy of faith, courage, and boldness Carolyn has left for her family! Her love for God's Word and His promises to His children are what defined her spiritual walk. She was always ready to roll up her sleeves and fight another spiritual battle to see the captives set free. What a warrior and what a friend! We will have a glorious reunion in heaven one day. Until then, we will all miss you.##imported-begin##Beth Scott##imported-end##

“ Carolyn was the bravest woman I have ever known. She showed a great example on dealing with her illness. She excepted what was to come and made it easy on all of us when we would go and visit. She kept her humor even when things we bad. I hope that I can be as brave as she was. She is in heaven now and no longer suffering. God bless this family for their loss. We will miss you Carolyn.###imported-begin##Glenda Williams###imported-end##
