In Loving Memory of Jasmin Narsa Basabanda

September 11, 1986 – July 7, 2025

It is with profound sorrow and heartbreak that we announce the sudden passing of Jasmin Narsa Basabanda, 38, of Buford, GA. Jasmin passed away peacefully in her sleep on July 7, 2026 and she was born on September 11, 1986, in Los Angeles, California.

Jasmin leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and selflessness—and two beautiful children, Rubi Dunegan and Noah Bahena, who were the very center of her world.

A devoted mother, Jasmin's greatest joy was found in raising her daughter and son. She was their everything: a fierce protector, a constant source of comfort, and the heart of their home.

Professionally, Jasmin was a nurse who dedicated her life to caring for others. Her compassion, strength, and unwavering commitment to her patients left a lasting impression on all who knew her. She had a rare gift for making others feel seen, heard, and truly cared for—whether at work, among friends, or with her family.

Her sudden departure has left a void none of us were prepared for. One day she was laughing, loving, and making plans for the future—and the next, she was gone. The pain of her absence is immense, and we are rallying around her children to provide the support and stability they now need as they begin this journey without their mother.

Jasmin gave everything to those she loved. Now it's our turn to carry her spirit forward—to show up for her children, and to keep her light shining in the world.

We thank you for standing with them, and with all of us, during this time of unimaginable loss.
