

Jasmine Traylor

July 26, 2000 - July 4, 2022

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our beautiful, sweet daughter, Jasmine Marie Traylor.

Jasmine was born on July 26, 2000, in Lawrenceville, Georgia. Unexpectedly so, she passed on July 4, 2022. At birth, we knew she was a special soul. Ever a curious and precocious child, she found great joy in exploring the world. In particular, she loved the world of animals. Her love for animals was evidenced by her desire to take in each and every one she "found". If Jasmine had her way, our entire backyard would have been converted into one large safari. Over the years, Jasmine has rescued lizards, guinea pigs, hamsters, and the like. All creatures great and small were loved by her, especially her pup, Milo. An artist at heart, Jasmine explored all avenues of art including dance, fashion design, and musical pursuits. Dance fueled her passion for cheerleading and cheerleading in turn led to basketball. Her love for classical music led her to playing the violin which led to her love for the symphony. Her musical tastes were not limited to symphonic pieces but included all genres including rap, heavy metal, and pop. Jasmine continued her creative pursuits at Kennesaw State University majoring in screenwriting and production. Her hard work resulted in making the Dean's List. We could not have been more proud! To be sure, our lovely girl was not one to shy away from a challenge, so she also tried her hand at video games and became an avid gamer beating some of the best. Jasmine also met the challenges of volunteering by engaging in various civic activities. To name a few, she volunteered at the Gwinnett County Humane Society and lent her assistance to registering voters. Recently, she volunteered at a rheumatology office which ultimately became her first place of employment. Jasmine had a tendency to be quiet and observant, but she was fiercely loyal and devoted when she felt comfortable with someone. Those who knew her gentle soul knew the unconditional love she had for others. We are grateful to all who took care to know Jasmine. Also, we would like to extend our gratitude to her doctors and medical professionals for their unwavering support. To all who dearly loved her and saw her heart, Thank You. Jasmine will be missed beyond measure, but her beautiful spirit will forever remain in our hearts and minds. Jasmine is survived by her parents, Christina and Jesse Traylor, her loving brother, Christopher Alexander Traylor, Grandmother Eva Traylor, Aleather Thompson, Aunts and Uncles Leslie D. Traylor, LaChrisha D. Smith (Husband Greg Smith), Johnathan M. Traylor, Berry J. Thompson, Dawn L. Thompson, James E. Traylor (Wife Whitney Traylor) and a host of cousins and Great Aunts and Uncles. She is preceded in death by her Grandfather, Jesse A. Traylor. “ This hurts different. I will never forget all the secret jokes we made of our moms as we were experiencing second hand embarrassment from the silly things they did. All the times we just laid on my bedroom floor just talking about random stuff and our moms would walk in and question us on why we were on the floor. They would never understand that it really is just comfortable! You the person that put me on to all the cool makeup tricks. To this day I will never be able to do my wing liner like yours. Our Starbucks dates will forever be unmatched. I could have never prepared for this. You will forever be in hearts and will NEVER be forgotten. I will forever love you baby sis. May you rest in peace.
