“ Jay was a fine young man, and a leader even as a teenager. It was a privilege to have been associated with him throughout his high school football years. Our condolences to his family.

“ Oh how this sweet man will be missed! As die hard Bama fans, we took every opportunity we could to give Jay a hard time about being an Auburn fan and as much as he loved his Tigers, he had such a good heart that he wouldn't even talk smack about football with us! I remember sitting beside him after drop off at Ridgecrest one year in the pouring rain and I looked over and he was grinning from ear to ear. I said, “Jay Terrell! You could at least act like you're sad to be leaving your kid for 2 weeks!” He didn't bat an eye when he said, “Oh, I'm gonna miss Brett! I'm just real happy I'm not the one lugging all the trunks up that hill in this rain!” 😂 Quiet, unassuming, but ever present loving husband and father, and just all around great guy whose absence will be felt by many! Sharon, Blake, and Brett, know that we love y'all and we're praying for all of you in the days and weeks ahead. Roll Eagle, my friend! 🇺🇸 🦅
