“ To the family of J C Craig,

I am sorry for the loss of your Dad.

I know you all will miss him. He was a hard worker and a very likeable person.

I can remember spending the night with him and Aunt Libby but I know where he is today he is in heaven wilth all our love ones. You will have his memories always. Be thankful that you don't have to see him suffer anymore. I didn't get to the funeral home to see him, but you all will be in my prayers.
