“ I'm so sorry to hear about your father Sandra, my prays are with all of you. I know you are going to have a wonderful time talking about all the great things your daddy did during his wonderful life. He will be missed by so many and I sure have enjoyed knowing him all my life. I enjoy coming by his house and looking at the things he enjoyed building, I always, wish I had one of the swings. Please, let me know if I can be any help to you or your mother, its going to be hard on her. He resting in peace and in a wonderful place.
