“ I had so many fond memories of Jean. Her funny songs and stories of her life in Scotland, her love of puzzles, our trip to St. Augustine, sharing many meals together, always offering a cup of tea, going to many estate sales. I will miss my dear neighbor.

“ Many memories of my Auntie Jean before she, along with Uncle Robert, Robert and Janie left for a better life in the USA. I was lucky enough to visit Georgia in the early nineties. I met my cousins and their families. No doubt she had a very rewarding life in the states. I remember her telling me that each and every day she felt like she was on holiday. RIP Auntie Jean ☐. Your niece Jane (McMillan Millar Young) your namesake. South Yorkshire, England
