“ I only know Jean as “Nanny”. I was lucky enough to spend many days and nights at her house , a kid’s dream, with acres of woods , river and plenty of dirt. We built forts, fished and drove the golf cart like Nascar drivers. Nanny always had banana popsicles cornbread and sweet tea when we finally came in at dark. I remember her canning food for her root cellar and homemade jelly and biscuits. She told us stories about growing up on the mountain and liked to sing Turkey in the Straw. She gave us plenty of advice and made sure we were safe in tornadoes. We learned every Bible story and what it taught us at Nanny’s. She was smart and sharp when something interested her , and her mind never left when her body grew tired. Her no nonsense practicality was the perfect compliment to Pa’s silly jokes. I will always miss her , but take comfort in the blessing that her and Pa are undoubtedly happier than ever and probably in a beautiful garden full of dogwoods and azaleas that will never stop blooming.
I love you , Nanny

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. I remember Jean as North Carolina mountain tough like Sam was and one who dearly loved her family.

“ Jerry and I have a special memory of Jean and Sam about 35 years ago when we went to their Azalea farm to purchase some Azaleas for our yard. We bought some beautiful dark pink Azaleas. Sam told us he also had some plants that looked bad, but if we planted them they would be beautiful. They were STICKS with no leaves or flowers on them at all!!

We bought them, but really had no hopes for them! Well, he was right! They have been the most gorgeous plants every year, including this year. Here is a picture of those Azaleas.

How blessed they were to have such wonderful, loving children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

We are so sorry for your loss, but know that Jean is in heaven with Sam with no more pain, waiting for their family and friends to join them.
