“ Jean Todd became my Aunt on December 15,1984. That was the day I married my husband, her nephew by marriage, to Leonard Allison Todd, Jr. Unfortunately,I didn't get very close to her until several years ago. We became Facebook friends and my love and respect for her grew by leaps and bounds Aunt Jean would say exactly what she thought. No filter.nomatter the ramifications. I loved it! ❤️ She would tickle me to no end. I loved her fiestiness. Aunt Jean, you were and still are loved beyond measure. You will be missed! Fly high Aunt Jean! Please give Uncle Donald a big hug and kiss from us!

“ I met Jean almost 18 years ago when both of us joined a support group to help us through the difficult losses of our husbands. We have met for lunches throughout the years and have shared more sorrows, but mostly joyful stories of our children and grandchildren. Jean’s great grandson, Summit was born around Christmas last year and was the greatest gift she could have received! I will miss her positive outlook on life and great humor, but will always cherish all the “sunshine” she brought to my life and our other support group members’ lives. May her Memory be a blessing for all who were lucky enough to be a part of her life!

“ My relationship with Jean started out in a grief group. After that was completed a few of us decided to continue seeing each other, so we met once a month for lunch. That was in 2004 and we still are doing it today. We love and enjoy each other so much we named ourselves The Sunshine Girls. We will certainly miss our dear friend, Jean. She was always so upbeat and had endless stories about her beloved family, the most recent being about sweet Summit.

I send my deepest condolences to Jean's family. May God grant you his perfect peace and comfort in your sadness and grief.
