“ Mary and Steve,
What a lovely mother you had, so thoughtful to other people. She was so good to Bill and I. I know every one will miss her very much. I hope she got my last card I sent her.
I wasn't sure of the address. It was a few weeks ago. I know you and Steve will miss her very much, but the grandchildren most of all will have an empty space in their hearts they will find it hard to fill. May God Bless All Of you Irene Shupe “Mrs. Jeanette was a very special lady to me many years ago. I worked for her in the 70s and the kindness and consideration she showed me every day was such a blessing to me. I learned a lot from her about life in general. The one statement still resonates in my life. “Don’t you worry about making mistakes; if you’re not making mistakes you’re not doing anything.” I tell my coworkers that same Word of wisdom from Jeanette. I pray peace for all family members and friends. Proverbs 3: 5 & 6.

I had lost contact with Jeannette and Calvin. I grew up in St. Stephen Methodist Church in Monroe GA where they attended as well. In fact, I was at the church service when you were baptized. Your parents were so kind and thoughtful. Prayers for the family. Sandra Brown

*Dear Steve and Mary,
I was so sad to find out about your mother’s passing. I have so many good memories of her sweetness and generosity to the Scott family. Everyone loved her very much. She probably never told y’all, but when I was a tiny little girl, I was at the church with my parents when your mother and father got married. During the service, I sat in the back, singing “How Much Is That Doggie in the Window?” I will always miss Aunt Jeanette and Uncle Calvin. They were my favorite aunt and uncle. My heart is with you both. Love, your cousin Gail Scott Hill*
