

Jeanne Whitfield Eubanks

December 13, 1963 - March 3, 2022

Jeanne Whitfield Eubanks, age 58, was born Jeanne Lynn Whitfield, to Leon and Norma Jean (McClure) Whitfield of Loganville, Georgia. She is survived by her children, Branden (Rebecca) Whitfield, Brittany (Debbie) Christian, and Kaylie Eubanks, her grandchildren, Avery and Piper Whitfield, Maisie Christian, her sister and brother, Valerie (Mel) Cown and Tim (Stephanie) Whitfield, and her nephew and several nieces. She was a loving mother to her three children and a wonderful mawmaw to her grandchildren.

She graduated from Loganville High School (Class of 1981) and was a graduate of the University of Georgia in 1984. She was a life-time member of The Girl Scouts of America, and she was a Girl Scout troop leader and assisted with a Cub Scout den as a young adult. She participated in the 4-H Club for many years and began her love of cooking when she competed in the 4-H Bake Off, making her famous mace cake and going all the way to state. Her children especially enjoy stories about her playing powder-puff football at Loganville High School where she was known as “Wild Whitfield #64”.

Jeanne was an independent, hardworking, single mother who was actively involved in her children’s extracurricular activities. She worked with her family in several different businesses and was always good with money and accounting. She was an entrepreneur and modeled her work ethic and taught her children everything she learned from her parents. In her free time, she loved puzzles and games and would hide the last puzzle piece, so she always had the honor of completing the puzzle, a fact she didn't reveal until her children were adults. A lover of the outdoors, Jeanne enjoyed camping, where she could hike and fish in the company of her dogs and family. She had a green thumb and had a house full of plants. She also enjoyed wildlife and had turtles, lizards, and fish as pets. She had a huge bird sanctuary at her home.

As a prolific storyteller, Jeanne could embellish the recounting of mundane and trivial experiences into action packed adventures that culminated into her role as the conquering heroine. She will be missed by her friends, employees, tenants and mostly by her family. We will always love her and already miss her!

“ I have know Jeannie since 1990,when i went to work for the family.was never treated as just employee.more like part of the family. the whole family was like that. I remember meeting her,when Brandon was around 2 years old and came down ,when I first started working for the whitfields..she loved her family, and spent time with them and did for them.Jeannie and I use to play computer games competing to see who could beat the other, she usally beat me.was with them till 2014 ,when health made me retire. She will be missed, but lives on in the heart of all who knew and loved her. my heart goes out to all her family.May God keep them wrapped in his arms, till they meet again. sending love and prayers. want to be there, but my health makes it impossible to drive up.love and sympathy, Mary Blacksmith Jones
