“ Mr. Pendergrass & Laura, I only met Jean on one occasion, so I really can't claim to have really known her. I can't help feeling that in many ways I did know her, because of her great influence on my granddaughter. Sarah has told me so many wonderful things about her kindness, understanding, and her tenacity in dealing with adversity. Sarah was greatly influenced by the example of her life. You know, Christianity is passed on to others through our example, and as a role model, she had no equal. I shall forever be grateful for her presence in Sarah's life, and I know that Sarah is feeling the loss along with you. I share your sorrow today and trust that, with God's gentle support, you will be able to overcome your grief and remember the special moments you shared with this lovely lady. Mr. Pendergrass, I can't possibly understand the loss of a wife. I can only imagine and empathize and pray for your peace. Laura, I can readily comprehend the loss of a Mother, and you have my deepest sympathy. A Mother leaves a vast void, and I trust you will be able to draw from her tremendous strength and be strengthened each day in the knowledge that you were a bright shining light in her life. Please allow me to offer my condolences. Johnnie Coston (Sarah's Gramma)###imported-begin###Johnnie Ruth Coston###imported-end##
