“ Jeff is my uncle, I met him when I was 35. He was the only one that made me feel like I was truly part of the family. I unfortunately didn't get to spend a lot of time with him but a few memories of him are having Thanksgiving, him getting me a killer deal on my wedding rings because he can haggle better than anyone and my wedding when he was there to share in one of the happiest days of my life. He also gave me some figurines for my bathroom that i will cherish forever. I love ❤️ you uncle Jeff, I hope your soul has the peace and tranquillity it deserves.

“ Jeff is my cousin,just a little story of something we did growing up.My Grand Mother had a Dr apt.in Decatur and she had to take us grand kids with her me,my brother Mike and Jeff.So Ray we called grandmother went inside us kids left in the car.I know right yes left in the car.So for some reason we thought we would move the parked car.Jeff and Mike pushing and I had to steer it and it was power steering car back in the day so there was no power to it parked.Some how little me I couldn't touch the pedals was able to do it I mean we were probably 6 to 8 years old,Successfully done.
Grandmother we called Ray came out with in 20 minutes and us grand kids waiting in the back seat.She cranked up drove off and I think we were giggling a little bit and she said I know what yaw did you moved the car didn't you?RIP Jeff you will always be in my memories

“ Jeff and Pat have been my best friends since they moved to Sunny Hill drive. I used to be stick to Jeff any time I was off work. We did everything together. He used to get mad at me when we went to auctions and I wouldn't buy anything. But we used to clean up when we went to garage sales. He was truly my best friend and I will miss him. Love you Jeff. Rest in peace with no more pain.
