“ *Just read of Jeff's passing. Wish I had heard earlier so I could have attended his funeral. I taught Jeff English his junior and senior year of high school. He was such a nice young man.
My prayers are with his wife, children and the rest of his family.*

“ I remember Jeff most of all from middle school we went together for a little while, he was a very loving and caring person from everything I remember. I know that Heaven gained another wonderful angel. I am so sorry for the families loss and I hope you find peace in knowing he is in the best hands ever now. Thank you for some awesome middle and high school years at Loganville Middle and High School. Your were an awesome guy and one awesome friend. Rest in Peace . Love Michelle Robinson
