“ Sorry to learn about the death of Jeff Parks. This must have been a difficult time for all. Therefore, I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span was 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##J Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Danny, Helen, Lani, Julie, Daniel and Mitchell

You have constantly been in our thoughts and prayers since the loss of your son, brother, husband and daddy. Jeff would not want you to feel guilty it was just his time to go. He is watching over you and sees that all of you are feeling sad and that the tears just seem to flow. We all come to earth for our lifetime, and for some it's not many years. He wouldn't want you to keep crying and shedding so many tears. Remember, he hasn't really left you although it may seem so. He has just gone to his heavenly home and he will always be closer than you know. Just believe when you say his name that he is standing next to you and he will be sending you messages from heaven and he hopes you understand that when your time comes to "cross over" he will be there to take your hand.##imported-begin##William (Billy) and Juanita Dewberry##imported-end##

“ Julie: Not sure if you remember me but Jeff and you; we all went to Prom together back in 1985. The last time I saw Jeff and you ya'll were leaving the church for your honeymoon. I am so sorry to hear of Jeff's passing. I have thought back to both of you often over the years and wondered how you were doing. Congratulations on those 21 years (plus) that you two had together. My thoughts and prayers are with you, your boys and Jeff's family at this difficult time. Take comfort in the memories.
My deepest sympathy,
