“ Dear Jeff,

It has been a true honor to have crossed paths with you in this life. Thank you for teaching us through your calmness and wonderful sense of humor, for being an exceptional colleague for almost a decade, and for everything we shared in this IT world. We will always cherish your professionalism, your willingness to help even when it wasn't your responsibility, and above all, your calm voice, your positive attitude, and that unmatched sense of humor that will always stay with us.

Thank you for all these years together at Nebulos and DCC. To your family, we wish that God may grant them the strength and comfort they need during these difficult times.

With love,

Daniela and Sam

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear about Jeff's sudden passing. He was a wonderful man, and we at David C. Cook truly loved working with him. Jeff was always a shining star, bringing his calm, encouraging, and reassuring demeanor to every situation—even during the most stressful events and those grueling 2 a.m. ERP upgrades. He had an uplifting spirit that brightened the days of everyone around him. He was a true friend to all.

I'll miss our chats dearly, but I'm looking forward to the day when we can spend eternity with Jeff and other friends and family in Heaven.

“ Royce, Allison and family. I am so sorry for your loss but this is heaven's gain.
I remember meeting this family when Jeff was a toddler. He would sit on the front pew at church quiet as a mouse when Royce led the music and Dianne played the piano at church. Then in later years Jeff, Royce and Shannon started singing as a trio. Such wonderful memories of this family. All of you are dear to my entire family Royce you and your family are in my prayers during this difficult time but rest assured you will see Jeff again some day soon. I know he is rejoicing with his mother in heaven now.
