“ Hard to believe that your infectious smile will not greet me. Your presents was felt & will always live on. Someone asked how old you are & my response was dumbstruck. When I think of you I think of the little boy in the floorboard playing cars when I picked you up to go play with Michael (oh & so happened to get in wreck). I was so afraid of you getting hurt & of your mom & dad being so mad; but you reassured me you were not hurt. You comforted me. You had one of the biggest hearts I have ever known & loved so largely. I wish I knew you better growing up. I will think of you often & remember your loving kindness. RIP Jeff ❤️

“ Thank you for being such a loving uncle to my boys. They adored their Uncle Jeff. You will be deeply missed. We had just talked about the new memories we'd make at the lake—it's hard to accept that you won't be there with us. Your absence will be felt, but your spirit will always be with us. Rest in peace!
