“ Dearest Loved Ones Of My Beloved Friend
Jennifer “Hanson” Martin,

I remember running into Jenn & Jon at Kroger before They were to move out of state. They told me they are married! I had goosebumps, even as I write this.... I have goosebumps.

I grew up with Jonathan & Jennifer; friends to both of them as kind hearted, loving, fun individuals... Learning of their marriage overjoyed me & made perfect sense.

I remember thinking what a match made in heaven. We tried so many times to get together; I am sorry that I did not try harder. I had started having issues with my health & sincerely regret not being a better friend, hearing of Jennifer’s passing took my breath away! In her memory I am not going to allow my health to get in the way of family, friends & helping others. I reflected through her Facebook page to catch up; I do not get on Facebook nearly as much but when I read her cry for help; My heart broke again as I know how desperate she was to have had to post a request. I would have helped Jennifer if only I knew, I know how hard that was for her personally & I’m so sorry I was not there for her. From my own experience; my husband is only one man and my family can only do so much. Jennifer is no longer struggling and our Father has healed her precious body, Yet her beautiful soul will live on in each of us that knew her & personally in everything I do.

Don’t be afraid to reach out my cell is 770-317-0037, if I can’t help physically, I will help spiritually In loving memory of my beloved friend Jenn.

Jonathan, Jenn and both families have a special place in my heart. The Martin’s & The Hanson’s are the most Genuine, Caring & Loving Families I’m blessed to Know!

May God Hold You All Tightly In His Arms; bringing you peace, comfort & love knowing we will meet again one day in heaven as brothers and sisters in Christ!

My Thoughts & Prayers be with you Always,

“ My darling Jennifer how I miss you so. You and I have been through so much together. Even when you were struggling, you were always there for me- providing me with unconditional love and support. The miles between us never mattered nor did the amount of time that had passed between visits. You have shared my darkest and happiest moments and I would not be the person that I am today without you. I can't imagine life without you. My only comfort comes in knowing that you are no longer in pain. Until we meet again....
