Jennifer Spillman Hogue

Jennifer Spillman Hogue, age 43 of Loganville, GA, passed away March 11, as a result of an undiagnosed heart condition. She was born in Los Angeles, CA on July 14, 1967 to Janet and Donald Spillman. At the age of 5, the family moved to Tucker, GA where Jennifer spent her childhood and teen years. She graduated from Tucker H. S. in 1985 and attended Sweet Briar College in VA. Returning to Tucker, she became an associate of Language Services. In 1995, she married the love of her life and best friend, Robert L. Hogue, Jr. This union brought forth two beautiful, kind and loving daughters, Chloe 9 and Kyra 7. Jennifer loved animals. As a child, over time, she had many pets. With her beloved horse Toy, she became an accomplished equestrian and won many awards. Jennifer was a loving and devoted wife, mother, daughter and friend. She had a unique ability to see life at its best. Her matchless compassion for those she loved was evident by her consistent recognition and celebration of important events and special occasions of her family and friends. Close to her heart was volunteering at her daughters' school. Her unequivocal bubbly laughter was highly contagious. Jennifer will be truly and profoundly missed by those who were fortunate to have been touched by her life. Here to cherish her memory are her husband, daughters, mother, Robert's mother, father, sister-in-law and nephew, and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. In lieu of flowers, contributions for her childrens' education fund may be sent to the "Jennifer S. Hogue Trust", SunTrust Bank, 701 Duluth

“ Jennifer's love, thoughtfulness, and consideration for others and extreme kindness will live on in precious memories. She was a dear friend to Linda and to us ever since we met her. Jennifer's ability to love and care for others even when she was a little was amazing. We love her and thank God for her and all the wonderful memories. We pray that God will hold you all very close and today's heartache will turn in to all the good in life she gave to all of us. Jennifer's love will never leave any of us and neither will our love for her.##imported-begin##Margaret & Don Stewart##imported-end##
