“ Dear Kelly, Our hearts are aching for you and the children. We will always smile sadly when we think of the many, many times we drove up the street and saw Jeremy playing with his beautiful children. Whether it be raking leaves, kicking a soccer ball, stringing lights, everyone was always smiling and laughing. What a wonderful and precious love he had for his family....what a wonderful man! Kelly, please know we are praying for you and your children.##imported-begin##Betsy and Kent Brings##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The loss of a loved one is so heartbreaking. Many people wonder why, and if it will ever end. Or is there some hope for the dead? Please read Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8, there we read that the God of love will bring an end to sickness and death. Jesus, while here on earth, spoke about the resurrection hope in John 5:28,29. That means that you and I will have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. Psalms 37:10,11, 29, and 72:7,8 tell us about the wonderful conditions that we will be surrounded by, when the above blessings are fulfilled. I hope that in your reading these scriptures, you will receive comfort and assured hope. With so much going on in today's world, we need it.
