“ It has been nearly a month since I heard that my high school classmate had passed away. I have many fond memories of Jerry and our times at Hoke Smith High School in Atlanta, Georgia. Jerry was athletic and played with much effort in all of his athletic endeavors. As a senior superlative he was aptly named the Most Handsome in the senior class. I wished that I had been able to keep in touch with Jerry, but our paths went in different directions, he remaining in Georgia and I moving north to North Carolina. It was not until our 50th Class Reunion that I reconnected with Jerry--that is a fond memory as we continued to meet over the last four years at the Varsity for Smith High Class reunions. I can see by the Tribute Video compiled by the staff at Tim Stewart's funeral home that Jerry had a wonderful life over the fifty years between high school and the recent reunions. He has a wonderful family and a devoted wife who cared for him over these past years. In this regard he was surely blessed. I will miss him this year at the reunion and trust that God has made a place for him in heaven. My sincerest condolences to the family, especially Tootsie and Amy. “ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to Jerry's wife and family. I went to high school with him at Hoke Smith and remember very well how much fun he was and always a treat to be around. He always seemed to have a big smile on his face and was loved by all of his classmates. Hazel Helms Gaylor
