“ I feel so blessed to have met this beautiful woman, Jerry Rawlins. I believed it was all purposed by God for us to have met. Although, it has been just over a year I met her, it sure does feel like I have known for years. She loved when my son and I visited her. I would stop by just to say hello, but she would want me to sit by the kitchen table and chat with her and I thoroughly enjoyed listening to her life experiences. Covid19 did not stop our time together, but it would be by the kitchen window, she on the inside and us on the porch. Her love for her husband, children, and grandchildren was unmeasurable, and so happy that her love extended to me and my son. My son called her mama. If he was out and came home and the car was not in the garage, He would say, "Mama not home" He would always waved when we returned home to the apartment because he knows she she is sitting at the kitchen table looking out. I noticed recently he was not waving and it was then I realized she was in the hospital and because he is unable to express himself in words, understood he misses her.

She is now gone to rest and Jerry we will surely miss you, but I am planning to see you again, Your strength and love will live on in those you leave behind .

Love, Millie and Villair
