“ Words cannot express the sadness Mr. Jerry's passing plays on our family and I can't begin to tell you how much he meant to myself, my children and of course my husband. Our lives won't be the same without him in them, but we are forever blessed for the many, many years we had with him. Mr. Jerry was a wonderful man whom we all loved and will greatly miss. Our Prayers go out to all of the family. Amanda, Terry, Breanna and Cole Sieveking###imported-begin###Amanda & Terry Sieveking###imported-end##

“ As a young man you saw something special in me
You believed in me and gave me my first break
You taught me communication
You encouraged me
You laughed with me
You worked with me
You were a great friend to me
You never stopped believing in me
You never stopped communicating with me
You never stopped encouraging me
You never stopped laughing with me
You never stopped trying to work with me
You never stopped being my friend and that's what I'll miss the most.###imported-begin###David L. Hart###imported-end##

“ Dear Dana and family:

I am so saddened to hear of your father's death. I am grateful you, Jose and Joshua made it in time to see him before he passed away. Although he did not get a chance to meet little Tyler, I am sure he will be an attentive guardian angel and not only for Tyler, but for all of you. May the Lord bless and comfort you all in your time of sorrow.

With deepest sympathy,

Katie Parham and family###imported-begin###Katie Parham###imported-end###

“ It was an honor having Jerry in my art class. He was a gifted student who loved art. I am so glad to have known him . I will miss his smiling face and warm and caring nature. He always spoke of his love of his family and his love of God in heaven. He is surely a shining star there now. Love you, Jerry.
