“ When I was so very young, we were boyfriend and girlfriend living on Greenway behind the Circle K on Monroe Road not too far from the double door end... We lasted for a few years... But we broke it off. He was in a bad way... But he was my first real intense boyfriend. He touched base with me after he found out about his brain tumor? Possibly? And then his father passing away, and then his mother passing away, which I went to live with them in Stone Mountain Georgia.
