“ I only knew Jess for about the last 3 years but the memories we created together seems like more than a lifetime together. She was more than a gift in my life that I will never forget. She will always live on in my heart and those hearts of the ones that loved her. She taught me how to always live in the moment and to always appreciate the smallest things in life because they can be the biggest. That I'm not just a drop in the ocean, but an entire ocean in a drop. I'll always love you Jess.

“ Ronald and Kristy I love you and I am so sorry and I give you both my deepest condolences to you. My heart goes out to you and she was a beautiful and sweet girl. If I can do anything please message me or call. I care about you and I am praying. Turn to God who can give you peace in this time because he is with you. Hold on and don't quit and stay strong. I love you all.

“ A beautiful young soul has left this earth to be with her Heavenly Father. Jessie was like a sister to me, and she will be so greatly missed. My memories of her will stay with me forever, as will all of our childhood adventures together.

I love you, and I am praying for you all. Stay strong, hold onto God with all your might, and hold onto each other. I am here for you if you need ANYTHING.

“ Jess was a free spirit, she never did anything by the books she always found her own way and she always made it work no matter how hard it was. We grew up in the same neighborhood but we didn't meet and start hanging out until high school. We walked literally everywhere that's all we really did was just talk and walk. I'll never forget when we skipped school with Parker and Yall were laughing at me while I got my septum pierced. Jessica was one of those people who would light up the room immediately, she had an amazing personality and was beautiful inside and out. I know I will never forget her, gone way too soon. Fly high beautiful.

“ I had the opportunity to share in the beautiful energy of Jessica during an Essence of Being workshop in which I was receiving for her group. The fire in her eyes and her smile warmed the hearts in the room that weekend... I have most definitely received the essence of her communication. This sweet girl and many in her family have touched my heart and soul more than words could ever begin to express. Journey on my sweet friend, we're watching.

“ I met Jessica playing soccer at Bluesprings and we just instantly became friends. We started hanging out and I'll never forget the time she came over to spend the night. We decided to stay up all night and we did. We ended up waking my mom up and I got in trouble but it was worth the memories! We all miss you beautiful angel! Prayers for the family.

“ Jessica was always very sweet no matter who she spoke with. She was very quiet but to those she was close to she always had an outgoing personality. Jessica you will be missed dearly. You will forever be loved. Rest in peace sweet girl.
