“ So so many heart filled memories of who Jim was. I know our Mother was so proud of her Sailor man. He had a giant heart and it is well proven he would do anything for anyone. His laugh was contagious, that deep come from his belly laugh. That Santa Claus laugh, which brings back a memory. Jim and Bud pulled off a Christmas surprise by being Santa. They even had noice up on the roof of the rein deer landing. Kim and Robert fell for that one big time.

We were only 15 months apart so our bond was almost like twins. We grew up together and always counted on each other. I always knew that nothing short of heaven would keep us apart. Well now that's exactly what's happen. My Big Baby Brother is with JESUS. We will be together again some day, in the sweet by and by.

The hymn our Mother loved , The Circle will be Unbroken. Rest at the foot of the cross you have earned your peace in heaven. Till I see you again. Love you Bro.
