“ Although I do not know your family, I read of your loved one's falling asleep in death and extend my condolence to all of you. God's Word foretells: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this future promise from God give your family a measure of comfort and peace to endure the sadness death has left behind in its path.##imported-begin##JESSIE CLAY##imported-end##

“ I remember the black Nova SS he drove in the late 60"s when we briefly dated. He loved that car and loved to drive fast! He always spoke fondly of his parents and sister. The world has lost another nice person. :(##imported-begin##Sharon##imported-end##

“ Denise.. Connie and I were so sorry to hear about Jim. I called Ryan Shreves this morning after reading about it in the newspaper and we talked about some of the good times we all had with Jim back in the 60's and 70's. Jim was a good friend and we are so sorry about your loss.##imported-begin##Roger & Connie McDowell##imported-end##
