“ I am so sorry for your loss. May these scriptures be of encouragement to you and your family. The loss of a love one is so heartbreaking. Many wonder why, and if it will ever come to an end. Doctors and individuals will do all that they can to prolong life. The reason why is because God has put eternity into us. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) Satan the Devil and Adam and Eve interfered with Gods forever, lasting purpose. Did God let them stop him from fulfilling his original purpose? No! Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8, tell us That The God of Love will bring an end to sickness and death. Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8, tell us about the wonderful conditions that we will be surrounded by. I hope that this letter will give you some comfort and assured hope. “ I regret that we have not stayed in close touch with so many of our good friends from our DNP days. We were so saddend to hear the news of Jim's passing. We will always remember him fondly for his fantastic stories and good nature. He opened his garden up to us on numerous times "back in the day" and the whole while we picked veggies he spoke of how proud he was of his sons. He will be missed by many.##imported-begin##Bev and Bill Manson- former Decatur News Employees##imported-end##

“ I will never forget one of my fondest memories that I hold dear to my heart... When yal would come to see us at moms, on the way in, Jimmy would stop in various places out the driveway and hide coins under rocks just so he could take me on a walk to allow me to find the coins... He always made me think there was a "money fairy"... :) and that I was "special" because I could find them... What a way to make a little girls day! :) I always looked forward to those visits!!! and he always made me feel like I was his favorite neice... but now I hear Pam, Sherry and Jeannie tell of the memories they each have and how he convinced us all we were his favorite... :) Even though we didn't get to see each other as often as we would have liked, it was always "just like yesterday" when we could come together again... and now when we all meet up together in eternity... we won't have to part, and there will be nothing but pure happiness as time goes on and on.... I love you my sweet Aunt Marie, Mark and Brian! I trust that God's arms are around you all, comforting you as only HE can, giving you SWEET PEACE in knowing that this is not the end but the beginning of the life we all look forward to... Where we will all be together, with Jesus in perfect wholeness, forever and ever!!!

“ Even while we grieve in this present life, we have confidence and joy knowing Jim is perfect and complete in Christ for all eternity. Our oldest son quoted Matthew Henry the other day as saying, "Death is the marvelous gift to the Christian to transform into a perfect life in Christ's perfect Kingdom for all eternity." How could anyone ask for anything more. We are very encouraged by Jim and Marie's faith in Christ. You have been a great testimony to us. There is nothing more important in anyone's life than their faith in Jesus Christ to obtain eternal life. You all have been and will continue to be in our prayers.##imported-begin##Dick & Jerry Lynne Waterworth##imported-end##
