

Jim W. Hope

August 21, 1932 - October 18, 2018

Jim Williams Hope was born James Tate Williams, Jr. on August 21, 1932, at 1080 Oak Street. Jim was a loving father, amazing husband, proud native Atlantan, successful mortgage broker, and fierce UGA football fan! Go Dawgs..woof, woof!

Jim lived every day to its fullest! Ran 29 Peachtree Road Races, drove Miss Georgia for 23 years in the Peach Bowl Parade and owned 11 Corvettes over his lifetime.

A graduate of Chamblee High, West Georgia College, UGA, and Brenau University, Jim was a veteran of the Korean conflict. He was a past president of the Georgia Mortgage Brokers Association and owned his own business, I.C.S., Inc. Jim was a faithful volunteer with F.I.S.H. of Walton in Monroe and belonged to Loganville First United Methodist Church.

Jim had two beautiful, accomplished goddaughters, Caysa and Rylee Manning and a beloved step-granddaughter..his Addie Kaye!

Jim is survived by his wife, Connie M. Hope; son, Bill Hope and wife, Vonda; son, Jim P. Hope and Wendy Angela; grandson, Brice Hope and wife Alison and their children, Maddie, Ty, Jack, Louie, Mia, and Bryson; and grandson, Brett Hope and Mi Her, and their daughter, Victoria.

I didn't know Jim long, but it felt like I knew him for decades. He was a special friend that is greatly missed. I think he was the nicest person I've ever met.

“ I loved doing yoga with Jim, he was very good. Jim got a hoot when I said "barbie feet" when I wanted him to flex. He would remind me of this and we would laugh. A very happy and involved neighbor he always had a smile and a joke.

“ So many smiles and so much laughter surrounded Jim at our Family Reunions.. He was always bigger than life and believed in big things and dreams... He was the man you "wanted" to see coming.. I only saw Jim off and on throughout my life.. But he always left the greatest impressions and was always smiling or laughing or pulling pranks with My Dad... What a wonderful way to remember a man.. Peace be with you Jim until we see you again...

“ Where do I begin? I have had so many wonderful times with Jim and it's hard to know exactly what to say. From the first time I met Jim around 23 years ago we really hit it off, and he always called me "Babe". We met while line dancing and danced together for many years. We even danced at the Olympics in Atlanta. Of course, all the cameras from around the world were on Jim because of his cuteness and ability to always smile. I last saw Jim earlier this year while he was working out & of course he showed me his latest corvette.

I will miss Jim and know that all who were lucky to have known him will feel the same.

Connie, I say to you, "You were blessed to have shared a life with this wonderful man". I'm sure you know that though.

I feel certain that Jim is dancing, working out and driving that corvette in Heaven!

“ Jim was a great friend. I worked with Connie for many years and got to know him through her. I never saw him without a smile on his face and giving me the feeling that seeing me was the highlight of his day. Of course, he made everyone feel that way. I'm pretty sure making everyone happy was his job.

I miss you, buddy.

“ I got to know Jim over the past several years when I would see him at monthly meetings. Though I only knew him a few years, he had a way of making me feel like I had been his best friend for decades. He had an admirable calm nature, and was always polite, warm, and interested when he spoke to you.

A true Gentleman, he will be missed.

“ Jim was always a ray of sunshine. I knew him professionally through the Mortgage Bankers Association of Georgia. He always had a smile and encouraging word. You could not help but feel better in his presence. I will remember all of the great bow-ties he wore.

As a businessman, he embodied the ethics and integrity our association was founded on. He helped many families and touched many lives. We are all better because he lived the way he did.

“ Jim was not only the best people I had the pleasure of calling my friend. Whenever we had a charity event for the mortgage industry Jim was ALWAYS there helping others and did so with a smile on his face. He was always cracking jokes and making everyone laugh. Heaven added a great one this week. He will be missed.

“ This just saddens my heart to hear. I am sending thoughts and prayers to the family. I met Jim back when I moved to GA about 20 yrs ago. He was one of my clients as well as a friend in the industry. I had lost touch a little over the years but always, when we ran into each other at mortgage events he was the first HUG as I walked into a room. I hate to admit it here but we shared jokes. he would remind me a few of the good ones and to help him remember the long one I told him about the doctor, dentist, banker etc... LOL What a great and dapper man! He will be missed. Cindy Barone

“ *Jim W Hope
My fiancé 's (Jimmy) Dad, was such a fun guy, he always made me laugh! He would always say to me one day there will be a picture of you and Jimmy on the wall in the hallway where the family photos hung. And most of all, I remember, he would say just love each other. So sweet. He will be greatly missed,*

“ Jim was the most positive human being I have ever known. He called frequently after my wife died to check in on how I was doing and to tell me a joke. The last time I saw him was lunch at Hickory House. That's how I will remember him - laughing over bbq. Joe Brooks
