“ So very sorry to hear of Jim's passing. We shared many miles of school bus riding during our high school years at Wyoming High School; many football and basketball practices together; and several classes. Jim was always quiet and reserved, but let it all out when on the football field or basketball court. We last visited with each other in Peoria at one of our reunions. God rest his soul.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss! I must share this with you Ellyn cause it will make you laugh. I remember when I was new at First Baptist Snellville and I came to a service by myself and walked in up front. Slipped into an aisle. Didn't know anyone and you and Jim were sitting there and for some reason, I don't know why I stopped in between you two. Maybe we were all standing but when we sat down I stayed right between you. I saw no reaction so I didn't think anything. U both were very polite and kind. When it was over and I realized u all were married, I was horrified!! Thank you for being kind and not making a scene. Think this is the first time I have told this! Enjoy the memories Ellyn! God has blessed you with many of them! Love u all!!
