“ Jim -first cousin, close in age- has been a very special person to me all my life. He was a child when his parents and siblings moved south. But my family planned vacations in “Atlanta” plus my military service and job-related travels allowed me to visit throughout the years. At nearly every visit there was some sort of excitement, some very unusual and/or dramatic event, with Jim. But even when years had passed between visits, we just seemed to pick up where we left off. Around ten years ago Jim stated he wanted to visit me/my family and share his joy in Christ, perhaps to play a part in our faith journey, maybe even help lead us to commit our lives to Christ and be “born again”. Before he could travel I met him in “Atlanta” on a business trip, for lunch. There in the restaurant at noon, full of diners, we tearfully shared our mutual love for the Lord and the grief of the passing of his mother and a brother. As wild and crazy, as far reaching were his exploits and experiences, to me he was one of the most loving, caring persons I’ve ever known. On top of that I know he was called Home to be with the Lord, where I’m certain he is greeted with joy. I love him dearly and feel a great loss, knowing that I’ll see him no more in this life. But I trust his family and loved ones rejoice in memories as well as take comfort for his new Home with the Lord and saints. May the Lord guard and bless Jim’s family and loved ones richly.##imported-begin##David Hawes and family##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Mayes and family -- I just can't tell you how sorry I was to hear about Jim's passing. I would have given anything to have talked with him just one more time....a great man. Here's what I posted on my FB page earlier today:
Retired DeKalb County Police Department detective and current Walton County SO Investigator Jim Mayes -- a great police brother. I worked closely with Jim back in the days when he was at DKPD and I was at the GBI. I have worked with him o...ften these past few years while he has been at WCSO and I have been at GCSO. As Chris said....a wonderful human being....a great husband, father and grandfather and a cop's cop. I will miss talking with Jim....we kinda looked after one another since we are "Old School" police and have both seen our share of "Fire and Rain" in law enforcement work. RIP Brother.....I hope to see you again in the future....but not too soon.....God Bless Jim's family.....at home and at work.....I know he will be greatly missed.....

“ Claudine, I just want you to know we are praying for you and your family. I know you looked to Jim for strength and comfort, but now you will need to look closer to God for these things. His arms are wrapped around you at this time and he will see you thru these difficult times. You have a lot of friends that will be there for you. If I can do anything for you please let me know.
