

Jim Woodward

October 16, 1945 - March 4, 2026

WOODWARD – Jim Woodward, age 80 of Loganville, passed away on Wednesday, March 4, 2026. Jim was an accountant for the U.S. Department of Labor prior to retirement. He enjoyed cooking barbecue for his loving family, making everyone laugh, teaching Sunday School, and putting everyone else before himself. Jim loved sports and if it was between seasons, you would hear Andy Griffith whistling in the background. He was preceded in death by his parents, Oscar and Dollie (Sapp) Woodward; and brother, Oscar Woodward, Jr. Jim is survived by his loving wife, Linda Woodward; sons & daughters-in-law, David Patrick (Michelle) Woodward, Brian (Amy) Woodward; granddaughters, Autumn Woodward and Ella Woodward; sister, Bonnie Sharp. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 670 Tom Brewer Road, Loganville, GA 30052. 770-466-1544. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com.

“ So many grand memories of Uncle Jimmy, who instilled in me a wild, unrestrained sense of humor throughout my Life. He was the only person I know who ordered a NuWay 3 hot dogs (all the way) meal in one sitting - His portrait should be on the wall of NuWay in downtown Macon, Georgia, where it all started.

When Jimmy & Ronald (my dad) got together, no one ever got in a word edge-wise. They fed off each other, getting louder and louder, funnier and funnier, until Jimmy & Ronald had us all laughing uncontrollably. Heaven got much louder last week with the end of Jimmy's Earthly journey. We all look forward to meeting again in Eternal Glory - Jimmy & Ronald will make it a Grand Party and the Laughter will be Eternal.

Prayers for healing, comfort, and peace, Linda, David, Michelle, Brian, Amy, Autumn, and Ella. God Bless.

Love,

Ronnie Sharpe & Family
