“ Jimmy Ruth and my mother (Lettie) would sit and laugh and talk about whatever was in front of them. They developed a friendship and I believe my family gained a family (and not just "in-laws"). Jimmy Ruth was a beautiful woman who was wise, caring and LOVED her family. I thank God that I was blessed to be in her life for so many years. RIP Jimmy Ruth.

“ During Aunt Jimmie Ruth’s stay in Athens, I saw her on a regular basis: almost every weekend after class, holidays, graduations and just because I was visiting. She had a way of making people feel special. Any gift, regardless of its value, was appreciated and shared with anyone who would listen.

Aunt Jimmie Ruth had a sense of humor. When she laughed, she would cover her mouth with both hands as she swayed forward. I can still hear her voice as she would share the latest family news with me.

I will miss my aunt and will remember her often. Rest In Peace Aunt Jimmie Ruth!

I love you! 💕💕
