“ My Nana (Jimmie Ann Porter) and I always had a very special relationship. I will always love and miss my sweet Nana, she always had the biggest smile on her face when she visited us, she loved her family so much and was always so excited to see everyone. I will always remember how she used to say Nana loves you SO much & is so proud of you after every phone call, I always thought it was funny how she talked to me in third person. She was a very strong Christian all her life and always said she couldn't wait to meet her sweet Jesus and now she has 🙌
