“ Jimmy was the leader of the pack! He was #1 of 14 Conner cousins.

I remember him as a cool teenager, in an Air Force uniform, a police uniform and serving the area as an insurance adjuster.

He was never a stranger with his cousins despite the age differences. He always made time to ask me about myself and my life. He was so easy to be around and full of life. As a sober person, he became a truly happy man. He absolutely loved carrying the message of AA. I couldn't have been prouder for and of him.

*Jimmy has left a legacy of kindness and wonderful sense of family. Happy Trails Cousin,
Susan Griffin*

Jimmy was a dear & devoted friend of many years. His love and appreciation of any and all things Monroe and his knowledge of the citizens of the town and business was unbelievable. He will be sorely missed by his legions of friends and his family.
