“ Stacy, so sorry to hear about Jimmy. He was a good man, and also a good competitor. I was in the same track class as Jimmy and he was tough to beat. May God give you comfort in this time of grieving. "And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (Phil 4:7)##imported-begin##Dick Crumb##imported-end##

“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. Times like these we wonder does God care.. I hope you find comfort in God's word the bible. God promises a time when "death will be no more"(Rev 21:4). Jesus taught that by means of God's kingdom.(Matt 6:9,10), the resurrection is a sure hope for those that have died, and they have a hope of living forever on a paradise earth. “ Stacy & Family-
I just heard the sad news of Jimmy's passing. Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Jimmy was a great friend and a pioneer in the world of adaptive sports and the healthcare business. I am sorry that I will not be able to make it back to Georgia for the funeral, I will be there in spirit. Your family is in my prayers.

“ I have worked at Shepherd Center since before Jimmy was injured, and I remember very clearly what a great guy and wonderful patient he was. Nothing was too difficult for Jimmy. He was tough, he was determined, he was strong, but he was also kind, and very funny. He had a twinkle in his eye that you knew was going to take him far. When he married Stacy, a member of the Therapeutic Recreation Department at Shepherd, we all celebrated for days. I knew Stacy well, and was thrilled for them. Coincidentally, their twins were born the same year my late husband and I had ours (two girls) so we had that in common as well. While I had not seen Jimmy and Stacy in years, I have never forgotten how much they loved each other and seemed the perfect match. My heart goes out to Stacy and the children, now grown or nearly so, as well as to the rest of his family. Jimmy was one of a kind, and he will be greatly missed by all who loved him.##imported-begin##Lesley Hudson##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear this sad news. I know Jimbo from Sportaid. Although we never met in person, only on the phone and e-mail, he was a wonderful and knowledgeable man who helped the disabled community in so many ways. Both me and my partner, who Jimbo helped so much, would like to send our sincerest condolences to his family and friends, and also the team at Sportaid.##imported-begin##Ellyn and Robert Pit, The Netherlands##imported-end##
