“ Mike was like my brother and I will miss him everyday. He loved his Church and his family. There are very few men like Mike and I was honored to know him and a better man for it. I will honor Mike by passing down the things he taught me as a young man to the others still here at work. Mike will always be here in our hearts and memories. “ Barbara, Jason, Dustin, & Family:
Words just cannot express how saddened we are of Mike's passing. We loved him very much and he was truly a great friend. We have so many wonderful memories that we can reflect on. Please know that we are here for all of you and we love you all so much. We are praying for each of you now and for the days to come. We know he is with God now and is rejoicing not only with his heavenly father, but with his earthly father as well. May he rest in peace.
