

Jo Steed Fletcher

March 12, 1941 - October 14, 2021

Jo Steed (Moorehead) Fletcher

On Thursday morning, October 14, 2021, Jo Steed Fletcher, wife of Ralph Fletcher and mother of four children, passed away at 80.

Jo was born on March 12, 1941, in Memphis, Tennessee, to James Paul and Sameva Moorehead. She graduated from Kingsbury High School. Afterward, she was a dog groomer and a beautician, and then worked the rest of her career as a realtor for various agencies in Georgia, achieving many accolades in sales including the Million Dollar Club.

With her first husband, Lionel Rowland, she had her two sons, Jimmy and Scott, and daughter, Wendy. Her daughter Elizabeth was born from her second marriage to James Steed.

Jo was a devoted lover of animals and began her pet rescue, The Pet Shelter, Inc. to help many animals in need including cats, dogs, birds and farm animals.

She had a fine taste for interiors and her home was always immaculately decorated in formal style. She also loved reading, occasional painting and drawing, and watching prime time comedies. Her sense of humor came out in funny reminder notes left for her daughter with included doodles of herself, or hilarious phone messages in which she would talk like Donald Duck. She collected many figures and fine art of cats.

Her favorite flowers were purple iris, and she loved the color yellow.

Jo was preceded in death by parents James Paul and Sameva, and her daughter, Wendy Rowland. She is survived by her sons Jim (wife Terri) and Scott Rowland, daughter Elizabeth Vitale (husband Steve), sister Paula Cochran (husband Frank), grandchildren Bryan and Rachel Rowland, and stepdaughters Brooke May (husband Bill) and Amy Rees (husband John).
