“ A Tribute to My Spiritual Mother

A week ago today, and era ended for me. I'm speaking of the passing of my friend and mentor Joan Begley Musser. She lived her life with the Hope of Glory. Now she dwells in the reality of that hope.

When I was a wee lad of 17 I came crawling to the foot of the Cross. There I found Jesus, Redemption, and Fred and Joan Begley Musser. You see, I was raised Methodist, and had a solid head knowledge of Christ. But Pastor Fred introduced Him to my heart. As many do, I wandered, but the anchor Fred helped me to put down held.

As a young married couple Judy and I attended The Tabernacle, a church Fred and Joan started, in the old Thompson Theatre in Lawrenceville. There we were taught how to live as a Christian married couple. Fred taught the men, and Joan taught the women. The classes were intense, but invaluable. I'm not sure we'd still be together if not for the lessons the Musser's poured into us. Not only us, but hundreds of young couples over their 70 years of ministry.

Through the years I got close to Joan. I found in her a friend, coconspirator, and rod of correction. She had the sweetest disposition, and the kindest eyes, but she was tough as nails when toughness was called for. She had a great sense of humor too. I feel sorry for you if you were never privileged to see her and Fred perform "Hummingbird." We laughed a lot, cried sometimes, and loved each other in the bonds of Christ. I eventually started calling her, "The Reverend Mother."

For some reason, known only to her, she thought I was funny. She'd start laughing at the sight of me, and of course that drove me to try and keep her laughing. It wasn't hard to do.

I could go on and on, but I think you get what I'm saying. I loved

Joanie. I love the whole Musser family. I can't be sad at her home going though. I'll miss her, but she's basking in her well earned reward. She's seen Jesus, and all the family and friends that have gone before her. So Reverend Mother, it's not goodbye, It's I'll see you soon. Rest well precious.

Your loving "son," Terry
