“ Our hearts are so sad right now, we truly lost an amazing person. Joan thank you for giving so much of yourself to us. We could ask you anything and you were always so quick to answer. We will always cherish your recipes. We loved you more than a friend you were part of the family. We gained knowledge from all of your memories. As a person you were a great example on how to treat those around you. We will always remember how much love and respect you still had in your heart for the husband you lost to soon. Even though we are all grieving we know that Mr. Pridgeon and you are once again united and that you have a great big smile. Love,
