“ For those who have experienced the death of a loved one, they yearn for nothing more than to be able to see them again. We want to live, and to enjoy our lives with those we love- that is only natural. But is there any hope for those sleeping in death? The Bible gives us the answer at John 5:28 where it says, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." We have faith in these words, for Jehovah is the "God of all comfort." (2 Corinthians 1:3) We all look forward to this time when we will be able to enjoy the company of those once lost to us because of the woeful effects of sin. “ To the family and friends,
It is with deepest sympathy that I wish to express my most sincere condolences in light of the loss of a very dear mother, sister, and friend. As your hearts prepare to heal from this tragic blow, it is my hope that you may find some comfort from the Holy Scriptures. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4- Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God.
