“ To Jocelyn's Family,

Jesus said: " I AM the resurrection and THE LIFE, whoever believes in Me, even if he(he), dies will live, and whoever lives and believes in Me, will never die, Do you believe this? John 11:25-26 (NKJV)

As I reflect on Jesus' words, take comfort in knowing how Jocelyn managed to touch those of us who came in contact with her for the short time she was part of our Atlanta Police Family...

For only a brief time was I able to know Jocelyn. And in that time, I was blessed by her beautiful Godly Spirit, her warmth, and gracious and generous demeanor. She was truly a joy to know! How my heart grieved at her passing.

As one who is also in Christ, please know that she truly was a child of the Lord Jesus, as I share with you one of my most treasured and comforting memories of her.

One day a few weeks ago, while on a break, she witnessed for Him, by reading and sharing the Living Word during her lunch break. She was reading her bible; A delightful and spirited conversation ensued.

I quietly rejoiced observing how she was diligent in pursuing a closer walk with Him and I know now, she is truly with Jesus.

Be comforted by His love and peace, forever more. His word is truth, in Him we never pass away, we transition into a life eternal with HIM!!! AMEN!!

Love you and Miss you Jocelyn!
