

Jody Lee Waters

May 24, 1987 - February 15, 2024

Jody Lee Waters, 36, of Atlanta, Georgia passed away on February 15, 2024. Jody was born to Brenda Waters in Decatur, Georgia. He was a graduate of Faith Christian Academy. He previously resided in Conyers and most recently in Atlanta. He worked at several Atlanta restaurants through the years: Ted's Montana Grill, Cowtippers Steaks and Spirits, Joe's on Juniper, Midtown Moon and most recently at Atlanta Eagle.

Jody was a deeply caring and loving soul. Friends describe him as being someone who took them under his wing, gave them the support they needed, and as a sweet friend who was funny. He was very loved by his family. When he was younger, he could take a basic camera and turn an ordinary object into art in a photograph. His beautiful blue eyes sparkled when he smiled.

Jody was preceded in death by his grandmother, Carolyn V. Olmstead. He is survived by his mother, Brenda Waters; brothers, Gene (Kristi) Waters, Brian (Melanie) Waters; sister, Misty Cucchiara; many nieces; a nephew; and good friends, Charlie Christian, Ryan Scott, Russ Wallis, Brian Crawford and so many more.

“ The grief is still too near for me to find words meaningful enough... Jody's kindness and affection was always understated, unless you truly knew him. Vigilantly nonchalant, as he was careful not to show too much of his sensitive side, until he got down on the floor with me and held me and cried with me as I just received some of the worst news of my life. Always there for me when I needed him most. I miss you more than I can say old friend 💔

“ I'm deeply saddened by the passing of Jody. It was fun working with him and I'm honored to have been his friend and known him these past 10 years. I'll remember your smile, hear that laugh and the way you cut your eyes at people. I'll think of you every time I hear George Michael. See you buddy.
