“ On April 14, 2011 we of the auto industry lost a great man and friend who touched the lives of us all, in business and in spirit. Joe will be greatly missed in this life in for sure it will not be the same. For whatever reason God needed Joe on the other side and he made his crossing. I look forward to the day when God calls the rest of us and we are greeted by our friend Joe Townsend.##imported-begin## Stacey Coussons and Family##imported-end##

“ Sara, Sandy, Rusty and Nathan,

Words could never express the heartache we feel for you today. Death is hard anytime, but when it is so unexpected it really hits your harder.

Joe was a wonderful husband, father and grandfather and will be remembered by so many people as the kind man he always was.

Please remember that we will be thinking of you in the days to come and praying that your sorrow will heal soon.

Love,
