“ RIP my friend.

I haven't seen Joey in many years, but he was a good friend in our high school days in the late '70s. We spent a lot of time riding skateboards and listening to music and partying. I have nothing but great memories of him as a talented skateboarder, drummer and fun friend to be around.

Best wishes to his family.

“ I have known Joey since elementary school as we lived in the same apartments. He always had talent above most people whether it was skateboarding, doing magic tricks, riding wheelies on his bike, etc. He was a performer and very good at whatever he pursued. He was the first person to ride in my Camaro when I was 16. We went on double dates and enjoyed many times together during our youth. I have spent time with Joey on several occasions long after high school as he came to visit me at my homes just to talk and catch up. I know him to be a friendly, grateful and kind person who was a pleasure to be around. I am truly sorry that this happened.

“ Joey I go back from Henderson days. I was in a really bad accident in high school, two of the four people in the car were not expected to live. Joey witnessed the accident. he was the first to call 911. His swift action saved the lives of two people that night. Two people that I love very dearly. He was not only a drummer, but a real life hero.

“ We talked and talked and laughed, you listened to all my problems and lifted Me UP when I was down.
We sang and played till the sun came up
You cooked every practice, and never once got irritated at how much I talked.
I shared some pretty DEEP stuff with you about my childhood and abuse
You were like my therapy, you told me we would be friends forever just a few weeks AGO, and I really needed that.
I keep replaying are conversations..
When I got stuck in the mud at your house and had to wait so long to get a tow, I now wish I had stayed LONGER to play because you didn't want to stop that night, you wanted to keep playing.
Oh how I wish I could call you to tell you
That the real reason I didn't come to practice is because I got arrested for a DUI, you thought I was bailing on you
I was inbarrest for you to know.
I got bailed out Friday night only to Find out Saturday morning what had happened to you, I loved you so much
Joey.....I will never,never forget you and how special you were, :(I miss you so much already!!!! Prayers to the family
So so sorry this has happened to such a Fabulous friend, I carry your memory
Forever Xoxox

“ I will miss Joey Fry so very much. He was a friend from high school, and a good friend I got reconnected to through Facebook, later. I will miss his generosity of spirit, his giving nature, his huge heart. Joe was always handy with a song to send that he knew I would love, or to invite me to hear one of his bands play...with tickets comped at the door...or meet me between sets to hang out and chat. Joe was talent, personality and a great smile all rolled in to one. What a sad tragedy for such a life to be cut short. I believe I will miss Joe's smile the most of all. ❤️

“ Joey was not only gifted as a singer and musician, he was an incredible person and Friend. It wasn't too long ago he called me and sang to me on my Birthday. That meant so much to me, and I'll cherish that memory, among many others. Especially his contagious smile! His was a life to be celebrated. Joey was taken from this life too soon, but let us not forget how he touched so many lives in so many positive ways! Thank you Joey. You will truly be missed.

“ One of the best musical performances I had the pleasure of participating in was with Joey, Bob May, Rich Jaffe, and Tracy Fields at Tracy's wedding reception. Usually, you remember a few mistakes and things that could have been better. Not that night. Because there weren't any mistakes.

I'll miss you brother, but I'll see you soon enough

“ I knew Joey for some 40 years. We met in the mid seventies and then reconnected about 4 or 5 years ago. He was an amazingly talented Drummer and Vocalist! We shared many musical highs and even some lows but the thing that he always had was a wonderful positive outlook on any situation and tried to find the little glimmer of hope and excitement in everything he ever did. I was blessed to have known him as long as I did and even more blessed to have had the time with him over the last few years. He will be greatly missed and certainly a huge loss to the musical community. But he will always be fondly remembered and cherished in my heart. My thoughts and prayers go to his family in this time of grief.

Joey I know you are Rockin where you are and the band there just got an amazing addition to the line up.

God Bless you!
