“ *Many of my friends know this Man
For whom we all were a fan
He was always there early
And he never got surly
Yes he was our boss
And it is our loss
But he developed workers
And very few shirkers
We did our jobs well
But we were not all swell
He found our needs
And provided the deeds
To make it all work out
And no one had to shout
To all that he touched
He meant so much
So let's give the family some love
And hope that all goes well 'above'

“ The AV industry and the world lost a legend and heaven gained an angel. One of the biggest influences in my life. A mentor, a counselor, a hero and most of all, a very good friend and not just to me. To so many. He was one of the most respected professionals in our industry. TriStar wouldn't be here or as successful if it weren't for this man. I owe him much and he will be missed so very much. I hope this post isn't too premature as I believe those closest to him now know he walks with God and smiles down on us all. Rest now, John Boyett, my dear friend. You were a humble giant amongst men and deserve peace, for your work here is done. Your legacy is honorable and will be preserved for all time. Love you, buddy - see you on the other side!!!

“ I only had the opportunity to work with JB for a short time. John was a straight ahead guy with a great work ethic. He loved his family and he loved his work. I always appreciated his "find a way to get it done" attitude with a sense of humor. My thoughts and prayers go out to John's family.

“ Many years have passed since we last sipped on a smooth "Jamison". I will tip one in remembrance of our good times past tonight. You meant and moved more people in your personal and professional life that can be measured. I am sadden by your passing and pray for peace and comfort to your family. I will always remember you.

“ I had the honor of meeting JB almost 15 years ago at Southern Business Communications. I considered him both a mentor and friend. JB taught me by example, how to how to treat people and how to manage people with dignity, respect and compassion. He was an amazing and caring Husband, Father, Grand Father, Great Grandfather and Friend. JB may your family and friends find some comfort in knowing you are in your permanent home in Heaven. Our paths shall cross again my friend. God Bless you and your loved ones. You will be very missed. Love you bud. JC

“ John was much more than my manger for many years. He was my mentor and my friend. my friend. He was the best at what he did and always had the time and a smile for his employees. As a personal story, he pushed me into outside sales and believed in my abilities when I wasn't so sure about myself. He was one of a kind and he should have written a book about managing people. I will miss him greatly. He celebrated with me in happiness and mourned with me in sadness. I regret I won't be able to attend his service to honor him, due to a trip. I will never forget him. My sincere thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and family. I know what you all meant to him.

“ I only got to meet you once or twice but I was so impressed with the kind of human that you were. You loved your daughter and your grandson and always took care of the ones you loved. I am honored to have known you and I am glad that I got to met you. Thank you for taking care of my sister Klm and raising her to be a wonderful and strong woman. They say that the greatest testament to how we lived is the ones we leave behind. You rest in Peace sir, and enjoy your well earned place in Heaven with your Heavenly Father. Prayers for the entire family at the loss of such a great and wonderful husband, father, grandfather, friend and brother in Christ

JB had a way of pushing me out of my comfort zone to accomplish something, all the while secretly holding a safety net. I knew he always had my back. He was the only manager I ever had who believed wholeheartedly in me. If he asked me to jump, I'd ask not only "How high?" but "How many times?". His dedication to his Maria and family first, then his job was obvious. RIP, dear John. Well done, good and faithful servant, well done.
